Roles and Responsibilities of the Board

Governance: The Governance of the Chamber is the responsibility of the Board. The Board is elected to represent a cross section of business and professional leaders. The Board sets policy and guides the direction of the chamber through the adoption of an annual business plan and long range plan. The by-laws support the governing role of the board by establishing officers and putting the financial control and overall well being of the organization in the control of the board.

Advocacy: As advocates Board members interpret the mission of the chamber, defend it under pressure and represent it to the members and the community. The chamber board uses the mission statement and values of the organization to take positions on important community issues.

Consultation: The expertise that board members possess, making them a valuable asset to the organization, needs to be tapped for the good of the chamber. Board members providing “quick response” advice on the areas of interest or considered consultation in their areas of expertise are essential components to the success of the organization.

Support: Board members lead the organization in providing support in many ways including attendance at events, sponsorship of activities, purchase of publication ads etc. General members do notice whether board members are involved. The example of Board Members sets a standard for others to follow.
